Dear Everett:

I regret the delay in answering your good letter of 2 December 1957, with its interesting suggestions. Despite the present Soviet posture against Israel which may present a complication, it is an idea that might be worth trying out. It is, however, rather in the field of the State Department rather than my own, and if you had not already done so, I would be inclined to pass it on to them for their consideration, but will not do so unless I hear favorably from you.

Faithfully yours,

Allen W. Dulles
Director
